

contextos

A Book Series Focused on Chicana/o and Latina/o Studies and Issues

UNM Southwest Hispanic Research Institute and UNM Press

www.facebook.com/ContextosBookSeries

Submission Information 2014-15

Contextos is a new book series affiliated with the University of New Mexico's Southwest Hispanic Research Institute and published by UNM Press. We are accepting submissions.

General Series Editors:

Antoinette Sedillo Lopez, Executive Director of Enlace Comunitario & Professor of Law.

Michael L. Trujillo, Associate Professor of American Studies and Chicana/o Studies.

For Information or for Submissions Contact:

Michael L. Trujillo

Department of American Studies

MSC03 2110

1University of New Mexico

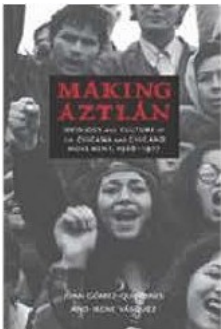

Albuquerque, NM 87131

505 688 5737

MTIruj@unm.edu

Series Description: In keeping with the University of New Mexico's Southwest Hispanic Research Institute's (SHRI) transdisciplinary mission, this series publishes books that deepen our understanding of the historical, social, political, and cultural issues that impact Latinas and Latinos. Topics may span regional, national, and transnational contexts. We invited scholarship in Chicana and Chicano Studies, the social sciences, public policy, the humanities, health and natural science, and other professional fields.

Inaugural publication:

Juan Gomez-Quinones and Irene Vasquez, Making Aztlan: Ideology and Culture of the Chicana and Chicano Movement, 1966-1977. 2014.

Albuquerque: University of New Mexico Press.